Professor S.S. Johl Award for the Best PhD Thesis-2025

The Indian Society of Agricultural Economics has instituted Professor S.S. Johl Award for the "Best Ph.D. Thesis in Agricultural Policy" to encourage outstanding original research in agricultural policy during the doctoral research. The award will cover related sectors, extending across agricultural, natural, and environmental economics. The award will consist of a citation.

The Indian Society of Agricultural Economics will administer the award. The applicants are expected to be the members of ISAE.

Applications for the year 2025 are invited from the research scholars who have completed their Ph.D. and obtained their degree/provisional degree certificate during 2024 (January 1 to December 31, 2024). The applicants should submit their Ph.D. thesis along with the application through their respective Ph.D. granting Universities/Institutes. The heads of the Departments should confirm the credentials of the applicant. The application form can be downloaded from the ISAE website (isaeindia.org). A rigorous review process will be followed by a jury of renowned experts in the field to select the awardee. The award winner will be invited to submit a paper from the thesis, which after being peer reviewed, will be published in one of the regular issues of Indian Journal of Agricultural Economics.

Soft copies can be sent on isaeindia1939@gmail.com and the hard copies should reach at the address given below. The last date for submission of the application is August 31, 2025.
